

CALL FOR PAPERS

THE 2025/2026 ANNUAL CONFERENCE ON AFRICAN POLITICAL ECONOMY 4 (ACAPE4) CONVENED BY THE AFRICAN POLITICAL ECONOMY ASSOCIATION (APEA).

AGENDA 2063: THE TRANSFORMATION OF THE AFRICAN POLITICAL ECONOMY

PARTNERS:

West African Institute for Financial and Economic Management (WAIFEM).
West African Monetary Institute (WAMI).
Foundation for Economic Research and Training (FERT).
The University of Ibadan, Nigeria

AGENDA 2063 is Africa's long-term plan for transforming the continent into the global powerhouse of the future. APEA has been following Agenda 2063 in its conference themes in recent years. The Agenda was crafted by the African Union to mark the rededication of Africa towards the attainment of the Pan African Vision of "An integrated, prosperous and peaceful Africa, driven by its own citizens, representing a dynamic force in the international arena, achievable within the period 2013 to 2063". The African Political Economy Association in continuation of its contribution towards the total development of Africa will, therefore, hold the 2025/2026 Annual Conference on African Political Economy, ACAPE, with the theme: AGENDA 2063: THE TRANSFORMATION OF THE AFRICAN POLITICAL ECONOMY on February 13-15, 2026.

Platform for the conference: Virtual.

Interested scholars are invited to write and present well-researched empirical or theoretical papers on the sub-themes:

Current Global Transitions	African Unity and Integration	Technology, Innovation, and Digital Transformation
Employment & Unemployment	Youth Empowerment, Education, and Employment	Migration, Urbanization, and Social Dynamics
African Continental Free Trade Area (AFCFTA)	Africa and the Sustainable Development Goals	African Financial Architecture
