3. All papers should be written with a view toward publication. Full papers are due two weeks after the conference. Papers would be subjected to anonymous peer reviews before being published. Please, use the following format.
- In a Word document
  - Main text (10 point and justified).
  - Quotations (9 point, indented .5cm left and right)
  - Footnotes 9pt and justified
  - The length of the paper should not exceed 25 pages, excluding the table of contents, References and any appendices.
  - A single spelling convention should be used throughout; this is British (e.g., ‘colour’), not American (‘color’) or any other variant.
  - Abstract 250 words or fewer
  - References/Bibliography (for books)
- [Last Name, First Name of Author]. [Title or Material]. ([Place of Publication]: [Publisher], [Year of Publication]).
- An example: Askia, Joe. The Greatest Invention. Abidjan: Sankore Press, 2019
- Tables and Figures should be numbered serially. e.g. Table 1; Table 6; Figure 2; Figure 5; Figure 7.

All works submitted should be adequately referenced (including all AI assistance), ensuring all work not original to the publication is cited correctly. APEA operates a zero percent tolerance policy on plagiarism; should the work be submitted without adequate citation, it will be returned as unsatisfactory. We will not publish work that lacks appropriate relevant citations.
